

MS 7 Newport Collection

About the collection:

A collection of letters and other papers relating to the public and private affairs of Sir John Newport (1756-1843), Irish politician, banker and landowner (Dictionary of Irish Biography). Purchased by Queen's University Belfast from Colbeck Radford & Co. in March 1937.

The bulk of the collection consists of some 250 letters, c 1765-c 1862, addressed to, and received from, some of the leading political figures in Ireland of the time commenting on some of the prominent issues of the day. Included are letters from William Conyngham Plunkett, Earl Grey, Lord Duncannon, Daniel O'Connell, John V. Nugent, Thomas Spring Rice, Edward Stanley and Thomas Grenville discussing mainly Irish affairs, in particular highlighting the republican sentiments of the population and the disaffection felt throughout. References are also made to the general European situation and to British politics. Of the personal letters noted, two are from Newport's nephew, Simon, writing from Eton and enclosing some examples of Latin verse with others from Newport's mother, father and brother. Among the miscellaneous papers and memos are a list of books taken to London, a rental of the Bishop's Hall Estate, household expenses etc. The collection also includes a series of extracts from the records of the English Exchequer copied by Frederick Devon, c 1836 and consisting of miscellaneous accounts from the reigns of Richard I, Edward I, Oliver Cromwell, and Charles II. A copy of the original auctioneer's catalogue (Colbeck Radford & Company) of 1937, from which the collection was bought, is also to be found.
