

Wiles Colloquium 2021

Thursday 9th – Friday 10th September 2021

Canada Room, QUB

‘The Roman Empire without Rome’

Day 1

2:00 Coffee/tea and welcome

2:30-4:30 Panel 1: Problem-solving and jurisdiction

2:30-3:00 Dr John Curran (QUB): ‘Justice and ‘brokerage’ in Roman Judaea’.

3:00-3:30 Professor Colin Adams (University of Liverpool): ‘The Art of Not being Governed in Roman Egypt’.

3:30-4:00 Dr Kimberly Czajkowski (University of Edinburgh): ‘Resolving Disputes in the Shadow of Empire’.

4:00-4:30 questions / discussion

Break

5:00-5:45 Dr Andrew Fear (University of Manchester): ‘In the land of the gentiles: identity in NW Roman Spain’.

6:00 Pub and dinner

Day 2:

9:30 coffee/tea

10:00-12:00 Panel 2: Frontiers

10:00–10:30 Dr Sean Leatherbury (University College Dublin):
'Between the House and the Tomb: Local Responses to 'Roman' Ways of Living and Dying in Osrhoene'.

10:30-11:00 Dr Eleri Cousins (Lancaster University): 'An Identity beyond Empire? Military Religion and Community on the Frontiers of Roman Britain'.

11:00-11:30 Mr Gary Watson, M.A. (Durham University): 'Inside or Outside of the Empire? Palmyra and the Policing of Rome's desert Frontier without Rome'.

11:30-12:00 questions / discussion

Lunch

1:00-2:30 Panel 3: Anatolia

1:00-1:30 Dr Benedikt Eckhardt (University of Edinburgh):
'Village associationalism in comparative perspective'.

1:30-2:00 Dr Erica Rowan (Royal Holloway): 'Sticking with Barley:
Diverse diets in Roman Anatolia'.

2:00-2:30 questions / discussion

Close